

First Friday?

What's that?

Will there be food?

How much does it cost?

Can I bring my Mom?

What if it rains?

Will my boyfriend
like it?

When?

Where is it?

Is it family friendly?

Hey, what are you doing Friday night?

Going to First Friday, you?

What's First Friday?

First Friday is Greensboro's monthly arthrop that celebrates downtown galleries, stores and restaurants.

It's totally free and fun for the entire family.

So I can bring my little sister?

Yep! And your grandmother!

What time?

From 6-9 Every First Friday of the month.

So what'll we do there?

There's a lot to do. Take a walk along Elm Street and the surrounding area downtown for live music in Center City Park - or go to one of the shops that stay open late - grab a bite - or go to one of the galleries and meet a local artist.

What happens if it rains?

First Friday happens all year long, rain or shine - and even on holidays.

Where is it?
